

MISCELLANY

A letter from New Orleans states that the returned Confederates are collecting funds wherewith to erect a monument to the memory of Munford, who was executed by order of Gen. Butler, for pulling down the American flag.

General Washington breathed out his spirit in the last hour, on the last day of the week, in the last month of the year, and in the last year of the last century. He died at 12 o'clock, December 31, 1779.

One Fleming, a murderer under sentence of death in Chicago, has sold his body to a medical college for fifty dollars, to buy a new suit of clothes to be hung in.

A young lady at Chesterfield, Morgan County, Ohio, was recently shot dead by the accidental explosion of a gun, just as she was kissing her lover to bid him good-bye.

The radicals wish to smoke out Mr. Segar, of Virginia.

Charleston Advertisements.

The Charleston Daily News. ON the first of January, 1866, the CHARLESTON DAILY NEWS will be permanently enlarged to the size of the "New Orleans Crescent," the largest daily journal published in the United States, and will be greatly improved in its general features.

The paper has already the largest circulation of any journal in the State, and is universally considered the organ and representative of the feelings of South Carolinians.

The very finest ability in the country is engaged on its columns, and the proprietors intend to spare no pains nor expense to make it a first-class daily journal.

Parties desiring to subscribe had best send in their names immediately, that their subscriptions may commence with the first number of the new volume, published 1st January.

Terms, $10 per annum, payable in advance. Send for a specimen copy.
